The bowls and baskets of the "Reef" series are veritable eye-catchers due to their organic structure and exceptional shapes. Many individual parts are assembled by hand to create truly extraordinary pieces of art that are reminiscent of deep sea coral reefs.

In the lobby or at the reception desk, which are both a hotel's hallmark, these impressive bowls guarantee lasting impressions with guests and visitors, especially when decorated with blossoms or flower bouquets.

The outside texture of the bowls differs within the series: whether smoothly rounded (page 68) or roughly structured with dark, patinated deepening (page 69), each variant has its own charm!

The displays of the "Classy" series are available on pages 30 and 31.
